Celebrate St. Patrick's Day Tomorrow at Post 201

Everybody's Irish on St. Patrick's Day. Wear green if you have it, but if not don't let that stop you. Drop by the Post tomorrow to sample an Irish Whiskey drink special, or a Guinness beer which will also be on special starting when the Clubroom/Bar opens and lasting until the close of the evening - - - or until the supply is consumed, whichever comes first!

In addition, a traditional corned beef and cabbage dinner will be served starting in the 5:30 p.m. time frame.

The liquor special is Limavady Single Barrel Irish Whiskey from the town of Limavady, northwest of Belfast in Northern Ireland. Limavady's is a single malt, triple-distilled whiskey brewed from 100% malted Irish barley. Master distiller Darryl McNally is a leader on single barrel releases within the Irish whiskey scene.

The whiskey is matured in first-fill bourbon barrels, and finished in Pedro Ximénez casks. The final product delivers a lusciously sweet combination of barley sugar, butterscotch, candied orange peel, and pepperiness.

Beer drinkers who aren't familiar with Guinness will find it has a malty sweetness and a hoppy bitterness, with notes of coffee and chocolate. A roasted flavor also comes through, courtesy of the roasted un-malted barley that goes into its brewing. It has a sweet nose, with hints of malt breaking through, and its palate is smooth, creamy, and balanced. Now for the real serious question: Is Guinness good for you?

You need to decide that for yourself, but check out this link as part of your decision making process. You'll find that the health properties of Guinness are actually more complex than they seem. In fact, thanks to some unique and surprising properties, the drink really can have some tangible benefits - - - at least according to this article.

Post News Notes of Interest

Raffle Committee Volunteers Needed - - Now that the Post has a raffle license in hand, Commander Fred Mahony is looking for volunteers to serve on a 'to be created' Raffle Committee. While specific committee responsibilities are still being developed, members of the committee can anticipate being involved in picking/choosing what raffles will be played at the Post, establishing the rules for each of the games, how often they will be played and how the winnings will be distributed - - - with the understanding that the two beneficiaries will be the Post and the winner or winners of each raffle with the expectation that the split will be 50/50. If you want to volunteer, get in touch with the commander on or before close of business Friday, April 24.

A Big Thank You 'Shout Out' - - Digging ditches isn't fun. Just ask anyone who's done it. So Dave Kirchner, who has been honchoing the concession stand remodeling project, gave a special shout out at Tuesday night's executive committee meeting to Alan Roberts and Wendell Kelly. According to Kirchner the two have done "an incredible, difficult, but very necessary" job of digging a French drain at the rear of the concession stand.

The drain trench is between 75-80 feet long and about 4 1/2 feet deep. It's designed to catch water that rolls down the hill behind the concession stand and divert it further down the hill toward the baseball field. If you need to know why the drain is needed, just ask Kirchner about the condition of the rear wall of the concession stand before the remodel. Does the term "rotting wood that needed to be replaced" sound familiar?

General Membership Meeting 7 p.m. Tuesday - - Be sure to put next Tuesday's General Membership meeting on your calendar and plan to attend. Dinner featuring Chicken à la King along with the ever-famous 'TBD' side dishes will be served prior to the meeting. Paul Sheridan needs two or three volunteers to help him with meal setup and breakdown. Let him know if you're available.

Although a formal agenda has not yet been published the election of officers process for the coming year (July 1, 2023 – June 30, 2024) will be on the agenda. Also the Post's recent oratorical contest winner, Vinayak Menon, 18, who is a student at Forsyth County's Lambert High School is scheduled to deliver his winning 10-minute speech at the meeting. His presentation, "The U.S. Constitution - - The Compass to a More Perfect Union" earned him a $1,000 scholarship check from the Post.
