Nomination Process Starts For Next Year's Leadership

Nominations for five officer and one member of the executive committee for the 2023–2024 Post leadership are now open and will be consider “official” at the Tuesday, Apr. 18 General Membership meeting.

At the conclusion of that meeting, nominations will be closed. This will give those nominated approximately one month to solicit support and encourage their supporters to attend the Tuesday, May 16 General Membership meeting - - - at which time next year’s leadership will be elected.

Adjutant Tom Billings has posted a nomination form on the bulletin board in the Clubroom for write-in nominations prior to the Apr. 16 meeting. Nominations may also be made at that meeting.

Open officer positions for one-year terms include: Commander, Senior Vice Commander, Junior Vice Commander, Finance Officer, and Judge Advocate. Also one Executive Committee member slot is open which is a three-year term.

Billings says the position of Commander, which according to the Post By-Laws is normally a two year term, will be a for a one-year term this year in order to complete the unexpired term of the current Commander.

Fred Mahony announced at last month’s membership meeting that he will not serve the second year of his two-year commitment due to personal plans which will routinely take him out of the area on an ad hoc basis. He plans to officially step down with the installation of next year’s leadership which is scheduled take place at the June General Membership meeting.

To be a candidate or to nominate a candidate, and to vote in the election you must be a Post 201 Legionnaire in good standing and paid up for Calendar Year 2023. Billings also said that nominees must provide a copy of their DD-214 to be certified as eligible by the Credentials Committee prior to the election.

At publication deadline yesterday there were two nominations for the Commander's slot. They were Jeff Rahn, nominated by Calvin Bennett; and Dave Kirchner, nominated by Jim Nessia.

Children's Easter Egg Hunt Set for 11 a.m. Saturday; Bar Service Also Opens at 11 a.m.

This year's Auxiliary-sponsored Easter Egg Hunt for the "little ones" is scheduled to take place at 11 a.m. Saturday on the Post's Walk of Memories grounds - - - and this IS NOT an April Fools joke!

Saturday's "Hunt" is the first one to be schedule during the past several years. Plans this year call for scattering some 1,000 eggs on the grounds for children 10-years-old and younger to find.

And while the children will be busy hunting for eggs, adults might be interested in 'finding' some liquid refreshment in the Clubroom/Bar. Clubroom/Bar Manager Bob Byrd announced last week that service is scheduled to start at 11 a.m. Saturday.

For the egg hunt itself, children will be divided into five age groups: 0-2; 2-4; 4-6; 6-8; and 8-10. Auxiliary President Joanna Garmon says about 200 plastic eggs stuffed with candy and other non-edible trinkets, will be set aside for each age group.

Volunteers are needed to help stuff the eggs tomorrow at the Post at two separate times, 11 a.m. and 5 p.m.

The stuffed eggs will be scatted around the grounds starting in the 9:30 a.m. time frame Saturday morning - - - after Ed Lively stakes out five separate "age group" hunting zones throughout the Walk of Memories area.

To make it all happens, both Garmon and Ellen Youngblood are asking for additional "volunteer" hands and arms to stuff eggs on Friday, scatter or hide the eggs Saturday morning, and help watch the little one during the hunt itself.

Please let either Joanna or Ellen know if you can help. Their email address are: Joanna, Joanna.garmon@yahoo.com; and Ellen, eftot57@gmail.com.
