Busy Weekend Agenda for Post: Family Day, Bourbon & Cigar Night, Plus New Monday Night Music Trivia

This weekend is shaping up to be a really busy one around the Post. In addition to dances on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights, and dance lessons on Friday and Monday mornings, Bourbon and Cigar Night is on the schedule for tomorrow night from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. and Family Day at the Post kicks off at 10 a.m. Saturday for a 4-hour run with fun and games for children (and adults) along with food for sale and the Clubroom/Bar opening for business at 12 noon.

Starting Monday a new 'music-related trivia' game will be launched at 5:30 p.m. in the Clubroom/Bar. Titled "Monday Music Trivia with Lisa" this activity is currently considered an experimental one which will take place every Monday for the foreseeable future - - - or as one pundit noted, "this is something that we'll have to see how it 'plays' overtime."

To sweeten Music Trivia light snacks will be available and there will be a prize for the winner. So drop by Monday afternoon, but remember: If you're not playing, don't shout out the answer!

Friday Night's Bourbon and Cigar evening is going to be a good one. At publication deadline the 7 p.m. - 10 p.m. event had some 30+ signed up to smoke a fine Oliva, taste a flight of three bourbons - - - Eagle Rare, 1792, and Redneck Riviera - - - and enjoy some outstanding hors d'oeuvres.

It's not too late to join the crowd. Tickets are $60 per person. Just drop by the bar and purchase one, or more. Of if you happen to see DiAna Casale am sure she'll be happy to sell you one - - - or drop her an email at americanlegionalpharetta@gmail.com and let her know you'd like to attend.

Some 12 hours (or less) after Bourbon and Cigar Night closes down, the Post will take on an entirely different look as Family Day at the Post gets underway Saturday morning at 10 a.m.

Although the weather may be somewhat “iffy,” current predictions say the rain should hold off until after activities close at 2 p.m. Family fun for the day include arts and crafts, a scavenger hunt, bounce houses, a cake walk, and corn hole games.

Post chefs Paul Sheridan and Tommy Youngblood will be demonstrating their culinary talents at the grill during the day, so plan on purchasing a hot dog, hamburger, or whatever else they may be cooking, and remember that the Clubroom/Bar will open at 12 noon.

Also don't forget to say thanks to Ellen Youngblood and DiAna Casale. They co-chaired Family Day with lots of help from the Legion Family volunteers.

32-Day, 20,000-Mile March to Honor Vets, Service Members Starts Today

Starting today and through May 29, the Department of Veterans Affairs will support a 20,000-mile march with more than 214,000 volunteers in honor of veterans and service members.

This is an annual collaboration between VA's National Cemetery Administration and Carry The Load, a non-profit organization that provides active ways to connect Americans to the sacrifices made daily by military, veterans, first responders, and their families.

The Relay travel routes cover all continental 48 states, ending with the Dallas,, Tex. Memorial March. The five routes (West Coast, Mountain States, Midwest, New England, and East Coast), and teams walk and cycle throughout the 32-day Memorial May campaign.

Events in Georgia are scheduled between Tuesday, May 16 and Friday, May 19. They are part of the “New England” route. Click here and scroll to the May 16 – May 19 dates for a complete list of events at each the 27 Georgia location including metro activities in Gwinnett, DeKalb, Cobb counties and the City of Atlanta. No events are planned in the North Fulton area.

For an overview of the the entire 48-state program including a map of the five national routes and schedules click here.

Those who wish to participate in a march are asked to register with Carry The Load in advance. No donation is required to participate. Carry the Load was founded in 2011 as a grassroots effort by two veteran U.S. Navy SEALs. Since that time it has grown into a nationwide movement with people volunteering throughout the year to honor and remember our nation's heroes.
