Community Members Welcomed at Post For Independence Day Celebrations

Post 201 will open its doors to members of the community for Tuesday's July 4 celebrations, but with perhaps a little more "sparkle and flair" this year than in prior years.

The Post's Clubroom/Bar will open at 11 a.m. on Tuesday for 'members of the 201 family'.

Members of the area community are invited to celebrate the day and take advantage of all the Post's facilities starting 12 noon and until after the annual fireworks show at Wills Park concludes on the night of the 4th.

Guests, as well as members of the Post family, are invited to bring a blanket and picnic on the grounds during the day and into the evening. Children may enjoy the bounce houses and other related activities during the day. And the all-volunteer Alpharetta City Band will be playing a concert on the grounds starting at 6 p.m.

Food will be available for sale at the baseball concession stand starting at 12 noon and it will remain open through most of the evening.

Beer will be available for sale on the grounds and adults may also take advantage of all the Post Clubroom's beverage offerings throughout the day and until the Post closes.

For those who might not be familiar with the Post's beverage rules, alcoholic beverages may not be brought onto the Post's grounds. Consumer fireworks, charcoal grills and small propane grills are also prohibited on Post grounds.

The City of Alpharetta's fireworks, which can be seen from the Post's Walk of Memories and baseball field, are scheduled to start when the sky is dark, which should be in the 9:30 p.m. time frame. If there is a weather delay, the latest start-of-show will be 10:40 p.m., the City says.

As in past years, donations will be appreciated for vehicle access to the Post parking lot from those who are not members of the Post, but who are taking advantage of the parking facilities in order to enjoy the area's Independence Day celebration.
