

YOU MAY QUALIFY FOR FREE CAREGIVING SERVICES FROM THE VETERAN'S ADMINISTRATION (VA)

To Qualify:

- Must be signed up for VA healthcare and be honorably discharged. Does NOT have to be a wartime veteran.

STEP ONE: Contact your Case Manager to schedule an appointment with a VA Doctor for a one-time visit.

- Request "In-Home Respite Care" and "Homemaker/Home Health Aide" Services
- VA Physician will do an assessment and will write an order accordingly.
- VA Physician WILL NOT replace your PCP if you do not wish for them to
- Request that the VA Physician specify Brightstar Home Care as your preferred In-Home Care Provider.

STEP TWO: Your VA Case Manager will contact you.

- The Case Manager from the VA will contact you after the VA Physician writes the order for In-Home Care
- The Case Manager will tell you how many hours a week of In-Home Care you qualify for.
- The Case Manager will send your information to Brightstar Home Care.

STEP THREE: A Brightstar Care representative will contact you to arrange services.

- Brightstar will contact you for scheduling services and to do an evaluation.
- A care plan will be created for you, and Brightstar will arrange for a caregiver to come to your home for up to the hours allowed each week.
