Stand-Up for Veterans Comedy Show At Post Tomorrow, Saturday Evening

Stand-Up for Veterans, a comedy show sponsored by AboutFace–USA, a Cumming-based veterans service organization and starring headliner Dave Landau, is on tap for Post 201's ballroom tomorrow and Saturday night. Showtime each night is 6:30 p.m.

Landau, who got his start in Detroit at the Second City's Conservatory, has become one of the most in-demand headliners working today. His laid-back demeanor and dark style of comedy landed him on Comedy Central's "This is Not Happening." He is also a regular panelist on Fox shows such as "Fox Across America," "Who Can Forget?," and "Kennedy." He was also a finalist on season eight of NBC's "Last Comic Standing."

Other performers both evenings include show host Richie Satori along with comedians Sean Larkins and Carlos Rodriguez.

Tickets will also be available at the door each night as long as seats are available in the ballroom.

AboutFace-USA serves as a first point of contact for veterans and their families, helps veterans improve their relationships, cope better with daily stresses, and positively alter the trajectory of their lives. According to the organization's website founders Joe and Carol LaBranche witnessed first hand the complex challenges faced by veterans returning from service. That experience led them to develop the non-profit initiative which is based on the principle of peer-led support.
