Post to Hold 'Will Trent' Watch Party Tonight; Scenes Filmed at Post

The season four finale of ABC's "Will Trent," which has scenes in it filmed at the Post several weeks ago, will be aired tonight at 8 p.m. on the networks' local affiliate, WSB-TV. For those interested, a 'watch party' is scheduled at the Post's Clubroom tonight to see the show.

Based on Karin Slaughter's best-selling novels, the show follows the Georgia Bureau of Investigation's (GBI) Special Agent Will Trent (Ramón Rodríguez). Abandoned at birth and raised in Atlanta's overwhelmed foster care system, Trent uses his unique perspective to achieve the highest clearance rate in the GBI. The show highlights his resilience, dyslexia, and sharp observational skills.

According to advance promotion, tonight's finale promises intense drama and suspense. Angie Polaski is about to give birth with Dr. Seth, but their journey to the hospital turns perilous when their car is T-boned, putting both Angie and the baby in extreme danger, and potentially Seth as well. Meanwhile, Faith Mitchell faces danger during a case involving kidnapped teens, as she is attacked while trying to apprehend the perpetrators.
